

I want to let you know that having K-love, and yes FM on my radio is very important to my family. I would be unhappy if either one of these station went off the air or were replaced by LPFM. It is nice to have a family radio station that my children can listen to with encouraging music. Also it serves as a church for many people who don't belong to one.